

The American people own our airways and it should not be used in such a biased way.